FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Global Facilitator Service Corps presents
ACCENTUATE THE POSITIVE:
CHANGING NEGATIVE SELF-TALK

West Hartford, CT – (August 5, 2009) - Global Facilitator Service Corps (GFSC) today announced its next webinar which will be facilitated by Izzy Gesell, MS Ed, CSP on Sept. 15th, 2009 at 4 p.m. PST, 7 p.m. EST, 23:00 GMT. In this one-hour webinar, people will learn how to be more confident and positive, as well as reduce their stress level and change the way they think.

An entertaining and enlightening keynote speaker, Gesell is an effective facilitator and a pioneer in using Improv for personal skill building, an author and presentation coach, as well as a CSP (Certified Speaking Professional). Izzy Gesell's programs and books help people thrive and prosper during difficult, changing times. He is well known for his popular workshops (Finding The Eye Of The Storm: Maintaining Dynamic Balance During Changing Times); keynote presentations (The Power of Now: Living a More Effective, Spontaneous, Confident Life through Improv Skills); books and CDs (Becoming Light-Hearted: Managing Stress Through Humor).

GFSC is expanding their use of web technology to involve and connect more people from diverse locations, backgrounds and experiences.

GFSC is pleased to partner with GVEN.tv to present this program. GVEN.tv (www.gventv.org) custom builds presentations and online programs that help organizations like GFSC raise funds to support their mission.

GFSC tools and techniques help people and communities navigate through crisis and change, strengthening community resilience.

Since 2003, GFSC has conducted workshops for experienced facilitators and community leaders in Asia, Australia, Europe, South America and North America (including Los Angeles and New Orleans).

Typically, GFSC operates with a small group who then shares what they have learned with an ever-expanding base of community members, increasing community resourcefulness.

The GFSC online library offers free manuals, articles and links to help community volunteers. GFSC collects and shares effective methods and materials, often collaborating with other experts and organizations to disseminate effective strategies.

GFSC, a nonprofit (501c3) organization, believes that people and communities around the world are capable of self-determination and is committed to enhancing local resources and skills to address current and future challenges.

GFSC provides mentoring, methods and materials to strengthen community resilience in times of crisis and change.
